Providence University Office of Academic Affairs Announcement

To: All Fresh Graduates, Department Heads, Advisors to Seniors, Dept. Secretaries

Date: December 5, 2022
Ref. No.: Jing-Jiao-Jung-11100082
Priority: Regular Classification: Regular
Attachment: Providence University Regulations on Graduate Degree Examinations

Subject: In accordance with the Providence University Regulations on Graduate Degree Examinations, effective 2020-21AY, the graduate students' applications for degree examinations must be accompanied by the e-file of the online originality test and comparison report (Turnitin Originality Check Report) of the thesis/dissertation that has been signed and verified by the Advisor.

Descriptions:

1. Prior to their applications for oral examination, the graduate students must complete the Turnitin Report, download the originality test report, and attach the hard copy of the report to their applications.
2. The Turnitin Originality Check Report attached to the application for degree examination must include the following items (see the exhibit below).
    1) Complete thesis/dissertation title.
    2) At the last page of the report, the "excluding quotes" and "excluding matches" must be closed; "excluding bibliography" is at the discretion of the respective departments (institutes, degree programs, classes).
    3) The principle for the maximum similarity index is 25%. A written explanation by the Advisor is required for a special case, which should be signed-off by the department (institute, degree program, class) head and submitted with the Application for Degree Examination.
3. The written content of the Turnitin Report must be clear. The signature of the Advisor should appear at the upper right-hand corner of the Turnitin report after verification (see the exhibit below). Send the written content of the report to the secretary of the department for scanning to be attached to the application for degree examination. The content of the scanned file must be clear.
4. For the procedure of Turnitin Originality Check, please go Luking Library→Turnitin Originality Check→ User's Instructions.

Original: All full time and part-time faculties; all dept. heads; all dept. secretaries; all graduate students
